two men stand beside the window, they are dressed in white, they share

a common rapture

they have also shared an orange, once they shared

the same woman

but this was long ago now, who knows how quickly we forget one of them stands with his hands on his waist, not because he is cocky but the other one stands with his arms loosely hung, he smiles, it appears

they are indifferent

but this is only a picture we can't know more than what we see or more than what we imagine seeing and they are sentenced to share, now and forever

an orange (and sometimes also in their thoughts)
